I've always looked about 15 years younger than my real age, and all my ex-boyfriends are younger than me. ※ I'm mature and in my 40's, but my mind is forever young.

What are your hopes and plans for the future? I love someone special very deep, deeper than the sea. So, I naturally tend to give more than I'm given. I'd like to raise a happy family by loving and being loved with a lifetime partner, not just a lover.

What message would you like to send to your future spouse? For loving and being loved, love itself needs to grow. My English is beginner's level. But, in order to understand each other and share various happy and sad things, I'll make as much effort as I can.

I think life is endless study and it's for my progress, too. If you are interested in my profile, let's communicate by email. I'm waiting and looking forward to your contact.
